

Anti-Money Laundering (AML) Disclosure

The USA PATRIOT Act, implemented in October 2002, is designed to detect, deter, and punish terrorists in the United States and abroad. The Act imposes new anti-money laundering requirements on brokerage firms and financial institutions. Accelerated Capital Group has implemented its AML program. To help you understand these efforts, we want to provide you with some information about money laundering and our steps to implement the USA PATRIOT Act.

What this means for you: When you enter into a new customer relationship with Accelerated Capital Group, we will ask for the following information:

- Unexpired government-issued ID evidencing nationality or residency and bearing a photograph or similar safeguard (e.g., driver's license, passport, etc.).
- Documents showing the existence of the entity, such as certified Articles of Incorporation, government-issued business license, partnership agreement, trust instrument, etc.

This information will be used to verify your identity. As appropriate, we may, in our discretion, ask for additional documentation or information. If all required documentation or information is not provided, Accelerated Capital Group may be unable to open an account or establish a relationship with you.

Other documents may be required by our policies and procedures that allows us to establish a reasonable belief that we know the true identity of the customer.

We thank you for your cooperation and hope that you will support us in our efforts to deny terrorists groups access to America's financial systems.
